This dry Riesling was grown in the Famille Hugel's famous Schoelhammer plot. With great ageing potential, it comes from the finest vineyard slope of Riquewihr, historically known as Schoenenberg. Its triassic clay-marl terroir is farmed organically so as to best reveal the complexity of its rich sub-soil.

Nuits Saint Georges / Côte-d'Or, Burgundy, France

Pinot Noir

An elegant and beautifully textured expression of Pinot Noir from the northern part of Nuits-Saint-Georges, close to the Vosne-Romanée boundary. The 2016 vintage captures the characteristic elegance of Romanée-Saint-Vivant while offering impressive concentration and ageing potential. Matured for 10–12 months in 100% new French oak, the wine integrates its oak beautifully into the fruit and structure, adding subtle spice and toast without overwhelming the expression of the terroir. Maison Louis Latour estimates a cellaring potential of 25–35 years.

Tuscany, Italy

Merlot

An iconic expression of 100% Merlot, Masseto is produced from the renowned Masseto vineyard in Bolgheri, whose distinctive blue clay soils are central to the wine's extraordinary concentration, texture and mineral character. The 2016 vintage is regarded by the estate as a textbook year, marked by a dry, sunny growing season and slow, even ripening. The wine was matured for 24 months in 100% new French oak, followed by a further year of bottle ageing before release.

Vintages may vary according to availability.

Tempranillo

A rare and highly individual expression of Tempranillo from a historic, century-old vineyard, Cisma comes from Finca La Valcabada, a tiny 0.8-hectare site at around 600–610 metres above sea level in Laguardia. Only approximately 1,150 bottles were produced, making this an exceptionally limited Rioja with significant ageing potential.

Oakville, Napa Valley, California, USA

Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Petit Verdot

An iconic Napa Valley Bordeaux-style blend created from the collaboration between Baron Philippe de Rothschild and Robert Mondavi, Opus One represents a distinctive meeting of French winemaking tradition and the character of Oakville. The 2010 vintage came from a challenging growing season marked by unusually cool conditions, untimely rainfall and late-season heat. The wine was aged for 18 months in new French oak, contributing subtle spice, toast and depth to its already complex character.
